100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va. ; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number ; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing ; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN off from my plantation on the 25th inst. a bright Mulatto Slave, named,

FREDERICK,

(commonly known by his associates as Frederick Bankhead.) He is about 25 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, active and intelligent, stammers a little when spoken to, with a large scar on his upper lip, grey eyes and curly hair, which he generally keeps cut and combed in fashion.—He had on when he ran away, brown linen trowsers and shirt, a leather apron and a checked handkerchief, red and blue, tied around his waist, a pair of New England sale shoes, no other clothing with him. I will give for him to be secured in any jail out of the state of Virginia, of District of Columbia, so that I get him again, 100 dols. If taken in Washington or Georgetown 30; if in Alexandria town or county, 50 dolls. or if in any town or county in Virginia, 50 dollars, and all reasonable charges, if delivered to me, or to the jailor of Fairfax county, who is authorised by this advertisement, to receive him, for safe keeping.

Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with ; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held ; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms ; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly : had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia ; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands ; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands ; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. We hear it is in contemplation to open a canal from Portland to the Kennebec River, below Gardiner, which will, when completed, make a pleasant journey as far as Waterville, 30 miles above Hallowell. The expense is estimated at 100,000 dollars, and must be of immense service to Portland, in bringing an extensive trade to that flourishing place.

Charleston, (S. C.) August 10.

It becomes our painful duty to state that the Yellow Fever has made its appearance in this city. In doing this, we conceive that we are performing a duty to humanity, and to the public in general, to whom we pledged ourselves to report the first case that occurred. We have been guarded in not exciting unnecessary alarm; and have, therefore, made this statement on the authority of the Board of Health of this city, as well as with the approbation of the respectable medicial gentlemen who attended a stranger that died this morning, and who also are in attendance on two others that are now affected.

We take this opportunity earnestly to recommend to strangers an immediate removal to Sullivan's Island, as a place of perfect safety; and to our fellow-citizens, generally, to have their houses and enclosures well cleaned and ventilated.

Several cases of a malignant fever having lately occurred in this town, & the Board of Health, apprehending that a vessel lately from the coast of Africa, last from Martinico, contained contagion which might have produced said fever. The Board have caused said vessel to be scuttled and sunk, so that no danger now exists from that cause; also such articles as were on board said vessel, that in the apprehension of the Board of Health, might contain contagion, are, by order of the Board, destroyed or removed to places of safety.—The public may therefore rest assured, that every thing has been done by order of the Board that can be done, to insure safety to the citizens, and that no cause of alarm at present exists; and if future cases of said fevers occur, they will be published, if public safety requires it. The Board acknowledge the attention of the Physicians of Boston, in their prompt and intelligent communications to this Board, of extraordinary cases, occurring in the course of their practice.

MELANCHOLY EVENT.

On Saturday last, Mr. Young and his two children, living in New-Baltimore, were poisoned in consequence of having dined upon a vegetable, vulgarly called toad-stool, a kind of fungus that resembles the mush room, and which the children had gathered instead of this latter vegetable.—The children died in a few hours after eating. Hopes are entertained for Mr. Young's recovery. [New-York paper.

Boston, August 10.

On Thursday, the 29th ult. four young lads had been amusing themselves by shooting birds on the marshes of Quincy. On their return home, while passing the estate of President Adams, (called Mount Wallaston) they commenced a heavy rivalry in killing swallows on the wing, in the vicinity of the buildings belonging to the above mentioned estate; by which heedless and thoughtless act, fire was communicated to two barns, which were totally destroyed, with a great part of their valuable contents, collected with much care and labor by Mr. Luther Spear, who now occupies the estate as a tenant, whose loss, including that of the venerable owner, cannot be less than two thousand dollars.

West Chester, (Penn.) August 10.

On the afternoon of Monday the 2d inst. our town was visited by a storm of unusual character. The vividness of the lightning and the roarings of the thunder, were equally magnificent and tremendous. A raging wind from the north-west, completed the danger and grandeur of the scene. The water appeared to be carried across the Tappan sea in a dense cloud, with a rapidity incalculable. As it approached the eastern shore, it seemed to acquire additional energy, and elevating the boisterous waves into a species of whirlwind, drove them with fury, apparently a dark floating mass, against the heights on the brink of the river, where they literally disgorged themselves in a torrent. The extensive prospect, and beauteous landscapes, visible about Sing-Sing, were totally obscured, and the whole hemisphere was involved in the same appalling agitation of those elements. [Herald.

COUNTERFEITERS.

On Wednesday afternoon a man who calls himself George Lindsay, a pedlar of dry-goods, was detected at Bushwick, Long Island, in passing base dollars. He was in the habit of passing a dollar at taverns and other places, and receiving change; and at the time of his detection had considerable small change about him. He was brought to Brooklyn, and examined before Judge Furman, and was at length induced to disclose his accomplices in New-York. A communication was made to Justice Christian, who immediately went to Dougherty's boarding-house, No. 262 Water-street, accompanied by a party of officers; he their seized four dangerous villains—found one base dollar and some materials. The whole gang, as also Lindsay, who was this morning brought over from Brooklyn, are now under examination before Justice Christian at our police office.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

A letter from Paris says, "A discovery of the greatest importance engages at this moment the attention of the physicians, the chemists, and the government. A person of the name of Mange, has discovered that the pyroligneous acid, obtained by the distilation of wood, has the property of preventing the decomposition and putrefaction of animal substances. It is sufficient to plunge meat for a few moments into this acid, even slightly empyreumatic, to preserve it as long as you may desire. Cutlets, kidneys, liver, rabbits, which were prepared as far back as the month of July last, are now as fresh as if they had been just procured from the market. I have seen carcases washed three weeks ago with pyroligneous acid in which there is yet no sign of decomposition. Putrefaction not only stops, but it even retrogrades. Jakes exhaling infection, cease to do so, as soon as you pour into them the purifying acid. You may judge how many important applications may be made of this process. Navigation, medicine, unwholesome manufactories, will derive incalculable advantages from it. This explains why meat merely dried in a stove does not keep, while that which is smoked becomes unalterable. We have here an explanation of the theory of hams, of the beef of Hamburg, of smoked tongues, sausages, red herrings, of wood smoked to preserve it from worms, &c.

New-York, August 13.

LATEST FROM BERMUDA.

By the schooner Maguet, Captain Wait, which arrived this morning, in the remarkably short passage of five days from Bermuda, we have received from our correspondent Bermuda papers to the 4th instant. They continue to discuss the subject of the short measure and bad quality of American lumber, and propose, as the only efficient corrective, that the legislature of the island appoint three sworn inspectors for each port, and that no lumber be admitted for sale until it has received their stamp.

The following account of a pirate is copied from our latest paper:

From the Jamaica Courant.

PIRATES.

Accounts from Salt Gut, in St. Mary's, dated the 15th July, state, that a Portuguese schooner called the San Antonio, had been seized by the officers of the customs. It appeared from what could be ascertained that she had been originally from Maranham to Para, in the Brazils, but was captured by a privateer under the Oriental flag, fitted out at St. Thomas's by an Englishman of the name of Mason, and commanded by an American named Ford, or Walker, who sailed under a commission purchased from Artigas. On board of the San Antonio, there had been 54 slaves, eleven of whom died on the passage: there were also some dry goods, of British manufacture, supposed to have been plundered from different vessels; the slaves had been taken out of a Spanish Guineaman.—There was not a single paper found on board, but two white men were secured on suspicion of piracy. Four of the people escaped in a boat belonging to the ship Middlesex, lying at Oracabessa, one of whom was afterwards taken. The crew were, it is said, all natives of Great-Britain, with the exception of the two Portuguese, found in the San Antonio. Every one on board were in the most miserable state from the want of food and water.—The negroes had been landed, but one of them died soon after. The prize-master says, that he had endeavored, but could not get to windward, and was latterly making for the Caymanas.

[FROM THE CORRESPONDENT OF THE TIMES.]

"Havana, July 28.

"Some considerable agitation was excited last week in consequence of letters received per last mail from St. Jago de Cuba, reporting that some serious disturbances had taken place with the *; that they had assembled in number about 320, and demanded their freedom, and the possession of a certain tract of land; and that the Governor had capitulated to their terms. The cause of such proceedings on the part of the *, as well as the pusillanimous acquiescence of the Governor, I am totally ignorant of:—for you may readily conceive the wise policy of our government in smothering rumors so pregnant with the most awful results. It is said some troops are about to embark for that place, and by others that some have already gone. In fact, it is impossible to obtain any correct information, but that some disturbance has taken place in that quarter, I think may be relied on. The next mail will give us further information, which I shall be glad to communicate.

"Our latest accounts from Europe are through the United States. The La Requelme, packet from Cadiz, (it was reported,) had brought the ratification of the cession of the Floridas—but as some time has elapsed since her arrival, and nothing appearing on that subject in our papers. I conclude it was unfounded.

"Business is almost at a stand with us—the prices of colonial produce abroad will not warrant shipments at the high rates with us; in fact there is no mode of remittance without incurring a considerable loss—the general commercial distress has in a great measure destroyed all confidence in Exchange, and what few undoubted Bills there are in market, are held at a premium of 5 a 6 per cent. yet—notwithstanding these glaring truths (vessels clearing out daily in ballast) the holders of our produce not being in want of funds will not abate in their prices—another reason for the high price of our produce is, in consequence of contracts made at enormous prices, predicated upon the belief that the demand which shewed itself in the early part of the season, would continue, and holders (particularly of molasses and Coffee) will not come down in their prices until necessity obliges them.

"Importations of European Goods and Manufactures have been very considerable, and sales made at heavy losses, of Dry Goods particularly, the qualities mostly being very course, which pay a duty equal to the finest qualities, or at least a very trifling difference—a consideration not sufficiently studied by shippers. It applies likewise to goods and produce of every description, and I feel assured it would be greatly to the interest of those who are engaged in the trade, and prevent many losses if more care was taken in selecting cargoes, and nothing shipped but of the best qualities and in the best condition.

"Provisions continue to support a good price—for quotations I refer you to an enclosed note of prices collected from actual sales.

"Some little activity begins to show itself among the Flour dealers—sales of old Philadelphia and Baltimore are making at 19 dols; fresh, 20 a 21; New Orleans, old, 14½; fresh imported, 16 a 16½; the demand for rice was very great last week, and some few parcels of prime brought 9½, but a single arrival taking place is considered the signal of a glut, and probably not over 7½ or 8 could be obtained."

Philadelphia and Baltimore Flour, 18 a 20 dols.; New Orleans, 14½ a 16½—fresh and old stored, improving; Rice, last sales, prime Carolina, 9½ this price will not hold—7½ a 8 is a fair quotation; Beef, Prime, No. 1. 21 a 22, scarce; do do No. 2, 19 a 20, do.; do. Mess, 23; Pork, prime, 30, but little consumption; Lard, 21, sales dull; Butter 16 a 21, nominal; Corn American, yellow, 87½ cts, per bushel; Beans white and black, 1 50, a 2, per 100 lbs.—market glutted and prices nominal; Candles, mould, sixes, 23; do sperm, fours, 60 cts. per lb. Soap, American, yellow, 9 a 10, plenty and dull; Boards, 29; Scantling, 33; assorted 1-3 Scantling, Cargo, 31, per M. feet; Shooks with heading, 2 rs.; do without do. 4½ rs.; Plank, 3 and 4 inch. 45;—assorted Sugars, 14 a 18 rs. per arobe, White, 20 a 23 rs.; Brown, 12 a 13; Muscovado, 14 a 16 rs. scarce; Coffee, 16 a 20 scarce; Molasses 9 rs.; Hides, 21 rs. each, Scarce; no Freights.

TRIAL OF PIRATES.

We have been favored with the Nassau, (N. P.) Royal Gazette of 7th and 10th July, by a gentleman who came passenger in the Artigan schooner Constantia, from which we extract the following trial and condemnation of John Davis, alias Souti, and Daniel Mercier, for piracy, on an American vessel, which it appeared in evidence, was the Contradiction, of Baltimore.

Nassau, (N. P.) July 10.

On Wednesday last, in the Court of Admiralty Sessions, John Davis, alias Souti, and Daniel Mercier, were brought to trial upon the indictment found against them at the commencement of the session, for piracy on a vessel, name unknown. From the evidence it appeared that this vessel was an American, and called the Contradiction of Baltimore:—her cargo consisting of logwood, coffee and oranges—on her voyage from Aux Cayes in St. Domingo to Baltimore; that she was taken possession of by Davis, then commanding an armed felucca called the Flibustier, and his crew, who disposed of the cargo, and converted the vessel into a cruiser, the same which afterwards seized the sloop Saucy Jack, and on board of which such atrocities were committed by Jean Dupuis and his crew. In the disposal of the cargo of the Contradiction, we add with regret, that some persons belonging to these islands have been so far proved to have been implicated, as to have bills of indictment found against them for aiding and assisting in the piracy. Davis pretended that he had acted under a commission from Aury, but he could produce none, nor any authority for his acting as a cruiser—The Flibustier was previously commanded by one Dutrui, otherwise Dutilly—this man, it was said, held his commission from Aury, dated at Galveston; but a mutiny of the crew having taken place while the privateer was lying off Long Island, the command of her was taken from him, and conferred by the crew on Davis, who proceeded to sea, and captured the Contradiction. Dutilly the former commander of the privateer was left on shore at Long Island, from whence he got a passage for the United States.—What became of his commission could not be shewn. Davis in this case could produce none from Aury or any other person. The Flibustier was manned chiefly by French mulattoes and blacks, and one of her places of rendezvous was in some part of St. Domingo; the South end of Long Island was another, where Davis with Mercier and others were apprehended, by a force sent from this town for the purpose.

The jury retired for a short time and returned into court with a verdict of GUILTY. On Thursday the prisoners were brought up for judgment, when sentence of Death was passed upon them, to be executed on Monday, the 19th inst.

The Attorney General on Thursday gave out to the Grand Jury two bills of indictment—one against John Davis, alias Souti, for piracy on the Spanish schooner El Dorado, in 1818, and the other against Gregor M'Gregor, esq. otherwise called Sir Gregor M'Gregor, for setting forth, aiding, and authorising the aforesaid piracy on the part of Davis, (by furnishing a commission while in this town.)—Before the jury retired, they were given to understand that the indictment against Davis was not to be acted upon for or against him, but was laid for the purpose of ascertaining facts introductory to the charge against M'Gregor. They were both returned True Bills.

The Court adjourned until November next.

SHIPWRECK.

The Nassau, (N. P.) Gazette, of 7th July, received at this office, states that the American schooner Sea Horse, mentioned in a preceding number of that paper, to have been carried to Crooked Island, by the American schooner Wonder, of Baltimore, had been driven on shore there and bilged. Half the value of this vessel and cargo was there allowed as salvage, and cargo to the amount was given to the master of the Wonder! the remainder of the cargo was sold there, and the chief proportion of it has been since brought to Nassau on freight.

EXECUTION FOR PIRACY AND MURDER.

The execution of Jean, alias John Louis Dupuis, for the murder on the high seas of Eugenio Nunez, a Spaniard, took place on Monday forenoon, pursuant to the sentence passed upon him on Friday last. Between 9 and 10 o'clock he was taken from the jail, and walked firmly to the place of execution, a little to the eastward of the water battery. He was accompanied by the Rev. Mr. Wright, rector of St. Matthew's parish, and the Rev. Mr. Turtle, Methodist Missionary, who administered to him the last solemn offices on the awful occasion, which seemed to be attended to with becoming devotion. He was launched into eternity about half past nine o'clock, persisting to the last in asserting his innocence of the crime for which he suffered. Dupuis, however, in his different communications after his conviction confessed circumstances relative to his crime, which were sufficient in the eye of the law to fully warrant the judgment pronounced against him. He was the officer in command. He stopped a vessel under British colors, peaceably navigating these seas. The men who boarded her committed the most inhuman brutality upon a poor defenceless woman in the sight of her own husband.—When the report was made to Dupuis, he expressed no abhorrence of the execrable fact; but ordered the husband and this outraged creature to be brought on board his vessel, not for the purpose of affording them protection, but because the woman was handsome. Shortly after the husband came on board while the dreadful outrage committed on his wife was still fresh on his mind; instead of soothing his distress, he immediately beat him;—he struck him the first blow.

The scene of horror still continued on board Dupuis' vessel, and the crew beat the unfortunate man until he was on the very verge of death. Dupuis here says that the crew were in a state of mutiny and that he made some efforts to protect the man, and was forced by fear alone to give him up. If he had used him with humanity before, perhaps this might have been an excuse worthy of consideration; but unluckily for him, he had himself been the very first person who had set the example of cruelty to the injured man. He denied having ordered the man to be shot and thrown overboard; but he made no effort to prevent it, assigning as his reason that he was under the impression of fear from his mutinous crew; yet the blood of the husband did not humanize him so as to prevent his shortly afterwards having intercourse with the wife so recently widowed. There are however, some causes for believing that the evidence denied by him, at his dying hour, was not on that account alone incorrect.—A man even in his last moments must speak and act consistently to be believed;—nearly the whole of the first night after his conviction, was spent in rage and blasphemy. During the next day he began first to look for religous comfort, and appeared to be sincere in his endeavors to seek the pardon of an offended God: Yet for a considerable time after this he persisted in his professions of entire innocence of every moral crime, except that of profane swearing;—with great difficulty he was persuaded that adultery was a sin; but to the last he could not be convinced that his was a particularly aggravated case. In his innocence from all aggravated offences he persisted until the last day, when he confessed that he was present and aiding in the capture of La Guira by the patriots, at which, he acknowledged that every woman was violated, every house plundered, and nearly every human being murdered; yet until this very late hour he could scarcely own that he had any greater guilt on his mind than that of his being a general sinner. His affection for his comrades appeared to be strong to the last, and it was probably from thinking that their case might be injured by any confessions of his that made him to the last, apparently insensible of his heinous transgressions.—These observations we have given upon the best information. The murder was collectively committed among his crew, and Dupuis, as their leader, has been justly made to atone for his participation in all its enormity.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

ON Monday, the 28th June, eloped from Bell Isle, King George county, Virginia, two negro men, DAVID and JOHN. David is a black fellow, about forty years of age, rather below the middle size, has invariably a smile when spoken to, a good hand in the field, and a tolerable wagoner; his clothing, when he absconded, were an old felt hat, a double milled drab great coat, much worn, lined with red flannel, jacket and pantaloons of domestic cotton and yarn cloth, and a coarse linen shirt. David has a wife belonging to Mr. John Singer, who some years since moved from Culpeper county to Harrison county, Va. and for the last two years has been in habits of intimacy with a negro woman by the name of Rosel who was sold last fall, by Mrs. Berryman, of King George, to Mr George Mason, of Gunston, Fairfax co. Va. it is probable he will attempt to get to one of these neighborhoods. Jack is a lively black fellow, about thirty years of age, of the middle size, a little bow legged, rather an awkward hand in the field, having been bred a house servant, at which he excells, rather a surly disposition, and by profession a Baptist. He has a father belonging to Mr. John B. S. Fitzhugh, near Falmouth, Stafford co. Va. and a wife and family belonging to Mr. Thos. Fitzhugh, of Brenton, Prince William co. it is highly probable he is lurking in one of these neighborhoods; had on when he absconded, an old hat, a suit of domestic cloth cotton and yarn, and a brown linen shirt, and carried with him a suit of white domestic jeans. It is probable he and David will change their names and dress. FIFTY DOLLARS will be given for apprehending and securing in jail said negroes, or half for either, if taken in the state of Virginia, or District of Columbia; or the above reward, if taken out of the state, & all reasonable charges, if brought home to the subscriber's residence. Masters of vessels, and others, are forewarned from harboring or carrying off said negroes.

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs; the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington,
Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria,
Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria,
Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines. But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity whcih teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository,

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
